

TONY WIED

U.S. Congressman, WI 7th District

"It is always very inspiring to see young people who want to get involved in our government and civic process. It was a pleasure to meet these students during their visit to Washington, D.C., and I was so impressed by how enthusiastic and informed they were. Their engagement makes me very hopeful for the future of our nation."

GWEN MOORE

U.S. Congresswoman, WI 4th District

"The Washington Seminar provides students with the opportunity to see the inner workings of the government, and their firsthand experience can encourage them to serve in their communities."
